Gauteng Together	Gauteng Together will mobilise ordinary people to initiate Community Action Networks (CAN) in their neighbourhoods; to identify community needs, and to work towards addressing them through co-ordinated, localised action. CANs can be constituted by several volunteers from a locality, a civic structure, a religious institute or any other community-based organisation. Local organisations already doing relief work can also register as a CAN.	Gauteng	Address: https://www.facebook.com/gautengtogether?_rdc=2&_rdr

Cape Town Together CAN	Through CAN, people in different areas all over the metro, and beyond have formed groupings to support each other. In some cases, wealthier neighbourhoods are helping poorer communities. Local CANs are helping these kitchens uphold hygiene standards by adhering to strict hand washing, wearing masks, and keeping a safe 1.5m distance from one another. In some instances, like in Bonteheuwel, the local CAN is linked to the Bonteheuwel Joint Peace Forum who qualify for permits already. In others, there is good coordination with local CBOs or NGOs. The Hout Bay CAN, for instance, works with a couple of dozen local NGOs to distribute food	Across the Western Cape	Contact: https://www.facebook.com/groups/CapeTownTogether/
The Peninsula School Feeding Association (PSFA)	The organisation raised more than R1.2-million to feed 9,000 households with packs which contained samp and beans, rice, mealie meal, peanut butter, lentils, tinned pilchards, self-raising/cake flour, fish oil and sachets of soup mix.	Cape Town	Tel: (21) 447 6020 Address: 26 Purdey Road, Sheffield Business Park, Philippi, 7750
